

PENAL SUMMONS WILL CALL AKEO TO COURT MONDAY

Joe M. Genella, Soldier From Shafter, Swears to Unjustified Beating With Club

On complaint of Pvt. Joe M. Genella, 2nd Infantry, that Policeman Robert Akeo struck him with his club at Aala park Tuesday night while placing him under arrest, and that the blow was not justified, penal summons was issued today for Akeo to appear in the police court Monday morning.

Genella came to the police station this morning accompanied by another soldier from his regiment, and at first asked for a warrant for the arrest of Akeo. Judge Monsarrat would not issue a warrant but gave a penal summons, demanding Akeo to appear Monday.

In the meantime the case is being investigated at Fort Shafter by the military authorities, but no conclusion has been reached and no statement can be obtained as to whether or not officers of the 2nd Infantry think Genella was mistreated.

Two lieutenants of the 2nd Infantry were detailed in Honolulu last night to take charge of the provost guard and eight soldiers were arrested during the night. Two of the men resisted arrest. One of these was arrested at the corner of Hotel and Fort streets and in a struggle which followed it is reported he was slightly injured and the ambulance from Fort Shafter was called to take him back to the post.

No policemen engaged in the struggle which preceded the man's arrest, one of the army officers personally being in charge. The other man fought with one of the lieutenants in charge after being brought to the police station, but was subdued by the army officer who was compelled to strike him several times.

Some of the men arrested last night were Privates Lewis, K. Van Metrie, F. Adamczak, James Logue, M. Delcatal, L. Ehrhart, C. Ehrhart and John E. Erb. All of the men were booked from the 2nd Infantry, and most of them are from Company C.

Rumors that there was a near-mutiny in the post at Shafter yesterday during which a guard had to be called to quell a disturbance started by men of company C, 2nd Infantry, have been circulated here, but have not been positively confirmed.

Led Akeo Demonstration.

Men of Company C of the 2nd Regiment are said to have been leaders in the demonstration against Policeman Robert Akeo, which was made the night following Akeo's fight with Joe M. Genella, also of company C.

At Fort Shafter in the guard house three men are confined for renting citizen's clothes to other soldiers. It was their plan to buy cheap civilian clothes and rent them to men who wanted to come to Honolulu without wearing uniforms. It was when a number of men attacked and stabbed Henry Carter, all of them being in civilian clothes, that the rent scheme came to light.

Most of the trouble made in Honolulu by soldiers is said to come from a number of recruits in the 2nd Infantry, which is largely made up of men who recently entered the service.

Until last night the provost guard has been composed of privates, commanded by one sergeant. Whether the two commissioned officers are to be kept on this duty is not known, but the police say the moral effect will be good if it is done.

FILIPINO FACES TRIAL FOR FOLLOWING GIRLS

Jacinto Suerte, a Filipino, will be tried tomorrow in the police court on the charge of molesting girls on their way to and from school, half a dozen people having been summoned as witnesses.

Minnie Barnatz, 14 years old, who lives near the Royal school on Emma street, and Esabella Colquhoun, 11, of 855 Beretania street, made complaint to the police today that the Filipino had followed them every day for a month. They said they were afraid to tell their fathers and came direct to the police station to ask protection.

Both of the little girls attend the Royal school, and have been frightened by Suerte's continued attentions.

ARMY RADIO IS EXPLAINED TO CATTON, NEILL CO.

Employees of Firm Given Demonstration By Capt. Hickman, Signal Corps

Practical illustration of the workings of an army field radio outfit was given yesterday to the assembled employees of Catton, Neill & Company by Capt. Edwin A. Hickman, Signal Corps, Fort Shafter. The talk, which was designed partly to aid the cause of enlisting a signal corps company for the National Guard, was of great interest and the demonstration were received with close attention.

The demonstration was given in the yard of the company. A radio section and a telegraph section were set up and demonstrated, the telegraph section including both sending and receiving apparatus while the radio section was confined to the sending apparatus.

R. L. Noggle, one who is leading in the work of organizing the signal corps for the National Guard, said today that he expects the roster will be complete in a few days. Only 12 more men are now needed to make up the requisite for a company, but the promoters wish to raise the necessary 40 to at least 60 and have no doubt of doing so.

Tomorrow afternoon the signal corps organization plan will be laid before the employees of the Star-Bulletin in a talk by Mr. Noggle and others.

PASSENGERS DEPARTED

Per Canadian-Australasian str. Niagara, for Victoria and Vancouver, January 7—Judge M. S. McCarthy, A. H. Clark, Mrs. R. P. Harbold, Miss Dorothy Spring, Mrs. G. C. Brown, John Brown, H. P. Davis, Mr. and Mrs. William Wolsey, George Anderson, Peter Grouse.

er of the defendants on the felony charge.

In a statement given the Star-Bulletin today, Mr. Brown said that at noon yesterday he was informed by the attorneys for Miss Spring that she would be willing to plead guilty to a charge of furious and heedless driving, and pay such penalty as the court might see fit to impose. The guilty plea would be entered, Brown says he was told, in case the felony charge against Miss Spring was nolle prossed; that is, dismissed.

Brown says he informed the attorneys for Miss Spring that he would accept the plea providing it was entered before tomorrow, at which time Judge Ashford was to hear argument on demurrers filed against the indictments returned against Miss Spring and Dr. Peden.

Denied Intent to Dismiss.

Dr. Peden and Miss Spring were scheduled to plead to the indictments last Wednesday. The demurrers were filed at that time and the date set for argument. Prior to that a report to the effect that the city attorney's office would dismiss the Spring-Peden case was emphatically denied by Deputy City Attorney Crilly, who said that his office had no intention of taking such action.

Regarding the dismissal of the felony charge against Peden, Attorney Brown says that under a charge of failing to assist a person injured by an automobile, the driver of the machine as well as the occupants of the car may be held liable, but when the charge is that of furious and heedless driving only the driver is held responsible.

From this statement it is intimated that Mrs. Moore came to her death as a result of the furious and heedless driving of an automobile by Miss Spring, and that Dr. Peden, who was only an occupant of the machine, is not liable.

"No Chance of Conviction."

"I did not believe that there was even a possibility of a conviction under the felony charge," says Brown. "I don't think that, had they been convicted, the sentence would have carried a term of imprisonment. And when I realized that we could secure a plea of guilty from Miss Spring on a charge of furious and heedless driving, I considered that would be far better than taking the chances of an acquittal by a trial jury."

"It is true that the maximum fine under the felony charge is $1000, while that for heedless driving is only $500." Brown called attention to the recent case of a sailor who, while driving an automobile, ran down and seriously injured a colored soldier. The sailor pleaded guilty and was fined only $75 by Judge Ashford, Brown added.

Miss Spring was driving the car at the time of the accident, and Peden's case was dismissed because he and Miss Spring could not have been driving the machine at the same time, says Brown.

"It is true that Mrs. Moore died as the result of injuries received on the night of the accident," says Brown. "But the only evidence of any bruise on her body from coming into contact with the automobile was a slight bruise on the left hip."

Hit Head on Ground.

Brown holds that the machine did not strike her on the head; that she probably received the skull fracture from striking the ground after being hit.

The case against Miss Spring was nolle prossed in Judge Ashford's court shortly after a recess had been taken in a trial now going on there, which was about five minutes after 4 o'clock.

Upon the bringing of the charge of furious and heedless driving, Brown says that he urged the court to inflict the maximum penalty, as Miss Spring had received from the prosecution all the leniency she was entitled to.

Mrs. Moore died a week ago last Monday, a few days following the accident, which occurred on upper Nuuanu street.

CAPTURE FOUR BOYS WHO LEFT REFORM SCHOOL

Exhausted by a walk from the north end of the island which had taken them several days, and with feet and legs swollen to the extent that the services of a physician were later required, four boys, fugitives since Monday from the reform school at Waialeale, crossed the Pali shortly after noon yesterday and came into Honolulu.

Their four-day period of freedom was quickly cut short, however, as Probation Officer John C. Anderson, learning that the refugees were in town, promptly sought them out, arrested them and, at 5:45 o'clock, saw them securely locked up in the police station.

Five boys participated in the more recent escape, and one of them is still at large. The boys captured last evening are Kauaka, Morushige, Charles Muller and Henry Kepano. Paul H. Sung remains to be captured. Kauaka was one of the 15 boys indicted by the grand jury.

Kauaka and the Japanese boy, Morushige, were found by Anderson in Liliha street, near Kunawai lane. Kepano was visiting his father at the National Guard armory when taken into custody. Muller was found in Aala lane.

The boys told Anderson that they

CHIEFESS WILL BE INTERRED IN OLD KAWAIAHAO

Funeral services for Grace Kamakul W. Kahoalii, a high chiefess, who died at her home in Liliha street yesterday of pneumonia, will be held at 1:30 o'clock tomorrow afternoon from St. Andrew's cathedral, interment to be in the Kawaiahaeo cemetery.

At 1 o'clock this afternoon the remains were taken to Williams' undertaking establishment, and tomorrow morning they will be transferred to the cathedral, where they will lie in state until the funeral.

Death came to the high chiefess after an illness of about three weeks. She was 62 years old and was born at Waianae, this island. She was a descendant of some of the oldest and most noted chiefs of Hawaii, and the daughter of Kalawailani and Nawali, his wife. She was a cousin of the late Queen Emma.

The first half-pint of milk at a milking contained only 1.07 per cent. of cream, while the last half-pint contained no complaint to make about the food at Waialeale, but that they escaped because the overseer worked them too hard. They admitted breaking into the school last Monday night to get food, but denied having gone back on Tuesday night.

The boys are in detention at the police station, and probably will be returned to the school next Sunday. Owing to the bruised condition of their feet, they are being attended by Police Surgeon Ayer.
